TERROIR SERIES

SCHIOPPETTINO

Ronchi di Chialla 'RiNera' '19. From the heart of Friuli, in the northeast corner of Italy, comes a varietal that was on the brink of extinction until the husband-and-wife team of Paolo and Dina Rapuzzi made it their mission to save it. Schioppettino's calling cards are black pepper, red berries and a juicy, mouth-watering finish. -16/56

BAROLO

Paolo Scavino '18. Italian wine doesn't get much better than Nebbiolo from the world-famous Barolo DOCG. Enrico and his two daughters, Enrica and Elisa, make deeply soulful wines loaded with structure and personality. -20/70

BORDEAUX

Chateau Le Puy 'Ducs des Nauves' Côtes de Bordeaux '20. Chateau Le Puy has been held by the Amoreau family since 1610, using the same organic farming practices the entire time! This bottling comes from a single 9-hectare vineyard north of St. Emilion. -16/56
